

Reconciled And Firm In Faith

Colossians 1:21-23

June 6, 2010 Calvin CRC of Ottawa

What is different in where v.15-20, and v.21-23 point?
 What does this tell us about the scope and dimensions of the gospel?
 It is C _____
 It is also D _____ P _____

What does "the finger" of the text accuse us of?
 Is that a fair accusation? How?

What can we call the state of being "estranged from God"?

What does it mean to be "hostile in mind"
 How we T _____
 How we A _____

How could I ever conceive of myself as spiritually "hostile"?

What is wrong with seeing the death and resurrection of Jesus as "metaphor"?
 - compare this text to 1 Peter 1:19, Romans 8:31-34

with Christ we are.....

without Christ we are....

What do the two beams of the cross represent?

How does this text apply to the two groups of people in Revelation 21:6-8?
 Insiders:

Outsiders:

What does continue in v.23 mean?

And – how might all of this affect the way we view and treat each other?

Reconciled And Firm In Faith

Colossians 1:21-23

June 6, 2010 Calvin CRC of Ottawa

What is different in where v.15-20, and v.21-23 point?
 What does this tell us about the scope and dimensions of the gospel?
 It is C _____
 It is also D _____ P _____

What does "the finger" of the text accuse us of?
 Is that a fair accusation? How?

What can we call the state of being "estranged from God"?

What does it mean to be "hostile in mind"
 How we T _____
 How we A _____

How could I ever conceive of myself as spiritually "hostile"?

What is wrong with seeing the death and resurrection of Jesus as "metaphor"?
 - compare this text to 1 Peter 1:19, Romans 8:31-34

with Christ we are.....

without Christ we are....

What do the two beams of the cross represent?

How does this text apply to the two groups of people in Revelation 21:6-8?
 Insiders:

Outsiders:

What does continue in v.23 mean?

And – how might all of this affect the way we view and treat each other?